Run by the Cowra Business Chamber, the Awards night is an acknowledgement of business excellence across the Cowra Shire, with the popular holiday park's finalist nod recognition for their high standards of customer satisfaction and consistent quality of service.

Wyangala Waters Park Manager James Armstrong said he was delighted to see the hard work and dedication of his team over the past year acknowledged by the wider Cowra business community, calling it a true testament to the Wyangala family.

"It's great to be recognised by our local community as leaders in customer service, especially when our fellow finalists are such esteemed members of the Cowra Shire," James said.

"All our staff work above and beyond to provide our guests with unique country experiences and plenty of unforgettable holiday memories.

"Winning this award would be a massive achievement for the team, whose passion for sharing the hidden secrets of this beautiful region we call home creating a 'back to nature' getaway like no other."
