

Bonny Hills Powers up with 26 New Camping Spaces in Time for School Holidays

The Reflections Holiday Park at Bonny Hills has received a $370,000 investment into 26 new premium powered sites, which will be available for caravan and camping enthusiasts, in time for the September School Holidays.

The 11 new astro turf sites and 15 powered turf sites will be finalised in the coming weeks and will allow families searching for a school holiday getaway to take advantage of the warmer Spring weather in a natural, outdoor setting.

Reflections Holiday Parks CEO Steve Edmonds said he was proud to introduce the expanded holiday offering to people seeking healthy, outdoor holiday options on the NSW mid north coast.

"We know interstate travel is a real challenge at the moment so it is important that we provide affordable holiday options that people can trust," Mr Edmonds said.

"Caravanning or camping in a pristine coastal location far from the anxieties of city life, is the most perfect holiday choice people can make right now.

"The new powered sites are in an idyllic location at Bonny Hills with water glimpses through to the ocean. Shady trees and sandstone retaining walls also offer great seating options.

"The sites are levelled and are some of the best you will find in any caravan park across Australia."

Park Managers Jarron and Pip Neal said their new astro turf sites would look great, and have the versatility of being able to accommodate caravans, camper trailers or tents.

"We can't wait to book these sites for our camping families," they said. "A number of sites will be available from September 11 with the remainder able to be booked from Wednesday 23rd – just in time for families to take advantage of this glorious Spring weather and break in school activities."
